

Melinda L Cain, Ph.D.

Partner US, Morrison (Denver area), CO, USA

As a senior-level executive in international business and network development, Melinda has been successful in leading multi-cultural teams, analyzing international operations, and managing organizational performance. Her unique profile of corporate and academic experience in both the U.S. and internationally demonstrates a professional record in consulting and organizational employment that includes Vice President of the International Division of SIRVA Global Relocation Services; Director Strategic Planning, Qwest Telecommunications; Manager, Language Translation Services, Oracle Software; and adjunct professor positions at the University of Denver and Troy State University. Melinda has over 15 years of instructional design and training in areas of intercultural communication effectiveness, organizational performance, project and institutional management, and change management. She is certified in individual assessment tools including Myers-Briggs Type Inventory assessment and the Cross-cultural Adaptability Inventory, and has been a senior state-level Colorado Performance Excellence examiner for three years. She is proficient in Spanish and French.

Ph.D., International Studies, University of Denver, Denver, CO, USA; M.A. International Studies, University of Denver, Denver, CO, USA; M.A. International Communication, American University, Washington, D.C., USA; B.A. Political Science and Western Literature, Mills College, Oakland, CA, USA (One year study, Université de Montpellier, France)
Spanish Language study, Cuernavaca, Mexico and Madrid, Spain